Mother Machree.

There's a spot in my heart which no colleen may own,
There's a depth in my soul never sounded or known;
There's a place in my mem'ry, my life, that you fill,
No other can take it, no one ever will.

Sure I love the dear silver that shines in your hair,
And the brow that's all furrowed, and wrinkled with care.
I kiss the dear fingers, so toil-worn for me,
Oh, God bless you and keep you, Mother Machree!

Ev'ry sorrow or care in the dear days gone by,
Was made bright by the light of the smile in your eye;
Like a candle that's set in a window at night
Your fond love has cheered me, and guided me right.

TELL me!
Why is there a doubt within thy heart, my own!
Tell me, why?
I but fear the time will come when we must part.

Alas! I should die!
Evermore, by day, by night,
I'll dream of thee, my darling,
My heart is but thine!
Thine A-lone!

In thine arms enfold me, my beloved!
Let thine eyes look fondly into mine!
For thy love bears a spell all too wond'rous to tell,
'Tis a rapture that's all divine!
So within thy tender arms enfold me,
For thy loss the world could not a-tone!
Belov'd I swear that I will e'er be true
And forever, thine a-lone!
